Madam/Sir,

Subject: Call for nominations for Master Degree Programmes by Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy (LKYSPP) for the academic year 2019-reg.

The Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy (LKYSSP), part of the National University of Singapore and recognized as the world's top public policy institutions, has invited nominations for the following Master Degree Programmes:-

a. Master in International Affairs:

For persons with outward-looking and passionate about understanding the transformations taking place in Asia and across the world, a 2-year Master in International Affairs (MIA) is offered. Fresh Graduates are welcome to apply.

b. Master in Public Policy:

For young professionals with 2 to 5 years of work experience, the 2-year Master in Public Policy (MPP) is a suitable programme to provide an in-depth training in policy analysis, economics, research and statistics.

c. Master in Public Administration:

For mid-career/ middle management professionals with 5 to 10 years of work experience, the 1-year Master in Public Administration (MPA) programme to develop skills in leadership and creative thinking and problem solving is offered.

2. The details about the LKYSSP and Master Programmes for Academic Year 2019 have been attached for reference. Placed in the programmes and scholarships are offered on competitive basis.

3. In view of the above, it is requested to forward the nominations of the willing and suitable officers along with vigilance clearance and APAR gradings for the last 5 years. The soft copies of the nominations in pdf format should also be sent by email to ictnacen@gmail.com. The nominations should be sent as soon as possible but not later than 15th October, 2018 for onward submission to Board.

4. It is requested that the officers may be advised not to send their applications/nominations to LKYSSP directly. Further, they should not enter into any correspondence with LKYSSP in this regard. The nomination of suitable officers will be sent to LKYSSP after due approval of the Board.

Yours faithfully,

Encl: As above.

MASTER IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Gain an in-depth understanding of Asia's role as a key influencer in world affairs.

Our two-year full-time Master in International Affairs (MIA) equips students with a strong foundation in both theoretical frameworks and practical multi-disciplinary knowledge of complex transnational issues, together with an immersive experience in Asia.

Classroom Diversity

The MIA cohort comprises 30 students from diverse academic and professional backgrounds.

Admissions Criteria

Applicants will be evaluated based on proven academic excellence and relevant work experience.

Successful applicants to the MIA programme have the following median GRE test scores:

GRE

- Verbal: 154
- Quantitative: 158
- Writing: 4.0

Required Documents

- Online application form
- Official academic transcripts and certificates
- Curriculum vitae or resume (optional)
- GRE/GMAT/LSAT test score
- Personal statement in no more than 500 words
- One writing sample in no more than 2,000 words
- Three reports of reference

Curriculum

The MIA curriculum comprises core modules and a wide range of specialisation modules and electives. The programme focuses on understanding international issues, the inter-linked nature of the world economy and Asia's rising influence on global affairs. They will need to complete:

- Seven Core modules
- Five Specialisation Elective modules
- Three Elective modules
- Master Thesis or Capstone Project

Distinguished faculty members including Professor Ramkishan S. Rajan, Professor Khong Yuen Foong, Professor Kanti Prasad Bajpai and numerous other prominent academics and successful educators teach the MIA programme.

Core Modules

Core modules focus on the complexities of international affairs, Asia and its place in the world, and the key theories and analytical tools needed to effect positive global change.

- The LKY School Course
- International Relations: Theory and Practice
- International Security – Concepts, Issues and Policies
- International Political Economy
- Research Methods in International Affairs
- International Economic Development
- Global Governance in a Changing World

Specialisation

The specialisation component offers students depth and sophistication in their selected area of expertise. Specialisation options include:

- Politics, International Relations and Law
- International Security
- International Economics and Development
- Regional Studies: The Asia Pacific
- International Public Management and Leadership

Elective Modules

Those who seek a broader International Affairs education may choose a more generalist approach by selecting up to eight free electives from over 60 modules. Students can choose from a new elective basket 'Evidence-Based Innovation Lab', which includes modules such as:

- Big Data, Official Statistics, and Public Policy
- Data Analytics: Science, Art and Applications

Please visit the LKYSPP website for the full list of electives.

The LKY School Course

This 13-week module provides an in-depth study of the Singapore success story and Asia's development, which will supplement the school's pool of case studies that are highly relevant to the Asian context. Students can expect a discussion of public policies that have been the cornerstone of Singapore's development, covering topics such as Singapore's foreign policy successes. Expansion of Singapore's economy and trade in the region. LKYSPP is especially well-placed to share the model of governance in Singapore and Asia, and our faculty members who teach this module include notable Singapore pioneers and luminaries. This module is compulsory for students of all master programmes.

Internships

Students can pursue internships via our Career Services Unit with employers to gain valuable exposure to the workplace and develop a competitive edge for their future job search.

MASTER IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Be equipped to handle complex issues that impact national, regional and global policies and projects.

Our one-year full-time Master in Public Administration (MPA) is an interdisciplinary course of study aimed at mid-level professionals who aspire to take on senior management roles or make a career change. A key feature is the Governance Study Project, which gives students the opportunity to study and research in a neighbouring country.

Classroom Diversity

The MPA cohort comprises 40 to 60 students from public, private and not-for-profit sectors, from more than 20 countries.

Admissions Criteria

MPA students must be mid-level professionals with a minimum of five years' working experience. They should possess at least a bachelor degree, aspire to management roles, and demonstrate maturity and commitment towards public service. Proficiency in written and spoken English is essential.

Required Documents

- Online application form
- Official academic transcripts and certificates
- Curriculum vitae or resume
- A score of 100 (TOEFL internet-based test), 600 (TOEFL paper-based test) or 7.0 (IELTS academic test), is preferred.*
- GRE/GMAT test score (optional)
- Two essays
- Two reports of reference

*TOEFL/IELTS test score is mandatory for all applicants except those with a bachelor degree conducted entirely in English.

Curriculum

The MPA curriculum comprises core modules and a wide range of elective modules. Students are required to complete:

- Four core modules
- Two elective modules from the Management and Leadership specialisation area
- Four free elective modules
- Governance Study Project

Governance Study Project

Students must undertake the year-long team-based Governance Study Project (GSP), where they will manage projects based on regional public issues. Through the GSP, students will acquire skills related to the analysis of complex managerial problems, as well as thorough research, writing and presentation skills. They will also develop higher emotional intelligence and a stronger connection with their cohort and team.

The GSP consists of a study trip at the end of the first semester, and a final conference at the end of the special term. It runs through the entire length of the MPA programme, and requires the application of knowledge and skills that students have learnt in each module.

Core Modules

Core modules focus on imparting practical skills, disciplinary knowledge and interdisciplinary competencies that facilitate the work of policy practitioners, researchers, public managers and leaders. They include:

- The LKY School Course
- Economic Analysis
- Policy Analysis
- Public Management

Elective Modules

Those who seek a broader Public Administration education must choose to read any four free electives from over 60 modules. Students can choose from a new elective basket 'Evidence-Based Innovation Lab', which includes modules such as:

- Big Data, Official Statistics, and Public Policy
- Data Analytics: Science, Art and Applications

Students are also required to complete two elective modules from the Management and Leadership specialisation area.

Please visit the LKYSPP website for the full list of electives

Cross-Faculty Modules

Students may also register for up to two elective modules offered in other postgraduate programmes, such as Business Administration, Economics, Political Science and Southeast Asian Studies.

Double Degree

Qualified students can pursue double degrees with the NUS Business School and the NUS Faculty of Law. They include:

- Master in Public Administration and Master of Business Administration (MPA-MBA)
- Master in Public Administration and Master of Laws (MPA-LLM)

The LKY School Course

This 13-week module provides an in-depth study of the Singapore success story and Asia's development, which will supplement the school's pool of case studies that are highly relevant to the Asian context. Students can expect a discussion of public policies that have been the cornerstone of Singapore's development, covering topics such as Singapore's foreign policy successes. LKYSPP is especially well-placed to share the model of governance in Singapore and Asia, and our faculty members who teach this module include notable Singapore pioneers and luminaries. This module is compulsory for students of all master programmes.

Internships

Students are encouraged to pursue internships in the public, private or non-profit sector. We actively engage leading think-tanks, consulting firms, multilateral institutions and non-profit organisations to facilitate internships. Internship opportunities are posted regularly throughout the year on the LKYSPP Career Portal, and students may work part-time up to 16 hours a week during a semester, or full-time during the official National University of Singapore (NUS) vacation periods.

MASTER IN PUBLIC POLICY

Look forward to studying economics, political science and public management.

Our two-year full-time Master in Public Policy (MPP) provides a strong foundation in policy analysis, programme evaluation and management. Students will be equipped with the necessary skills and competencies to become highly skilled policy-makers and analysts in the public, private or non-profit sectors.

Admissions Criteria

MPP applicants must demonstrate intellectual distinction, personal character and leadership capabilities. They should possess at least a bachelor degree and two to five years' working experience. Proficiency in written and spoken English is essential.

Required Documents

- Online application form
- Official academic transcripts and certificates
- Curriculum vitae or resume
- A score of 100 (TOEFL internet-based test), 600 (TOEFL paper-based test) or 7.0 (IELTS academic test), is preferred.*
- GRE/GMAT test score (optional)
- Two essays
- Two reports of reference — one professional and one academic reference

*TOEFL/IELTS test score is mandatory for all applicants except those with a bachelor degree conducted entirely in English.

Curriculum

The MPP curriculum comprises core modules and a wide range of specialisation modules and electives.

Core Modules

Core modules focus on imparting knowledge, developing practical skills and promoting interdisciplinary competencies that are critical for the work of public policy practitioners, particularly analysts and researchers.

- The LKY School Course
- Policy Challenges
- Policy Process and Institutions
- Economic Foundations for Public Policy
- Policy Analysis Exercise (PAE)*
- Public Administration and Politics
- Quantitative Research Methods for Public Policy 1
- Quantitative Research Methods for Public Policy 2
- Qualitative Research Methods for Public Policy

*PAE is a public policy project completed as a capstone module for a client organisation in the public, private or non-profit sector.

Students will embark on a study trip to a country in Asia, where they gain exposure to the ground realities of the country they visit, to have a better understanding of the complexity and challenges of resolving 'wicked' problems and policy issues. They will have the opportunity to meet and interact with a variety of stakeholders from the public, private and non-profit sectors, to gain a deeper appreciation of policies and trade-offs needed to address real-world policy challenges.

Specialisation

Students can acquire greater depth and sophistication through any one of the three areas of specialisation:

- Economics and Development
- Politics and International Affairs
- Management and Leadership

Students may also opt to graduate without a specialisation.

Elective Modules

Those who seek a broader public policy education may choose a more generalist approach by selecting up to five free electives from over 60 modules. Students can choose from a new elective basket 'Evidence-Based Innovation Lab', which includes modules such as:

- Big Data, Official Statistics, and Public Policy
- Data Analytics: Science, Art and Applications

Please visit the LKYSPP website for the full list of electives.

Classroom Diversity

The MPP cohort comprises 60 to 80 students from public, private and non-profit sectors, from more than 20 countries.
